

The [111] Governing Body is held accountable for the [102] Business organization. Therefore the [111] Governing body practices [113] Governance by creating [116] Policies to ensure that the [102] Business Organization has [130] Compliance towards laws, regulations and similar. This is part of the [140] Risk Management of the [102] Business Organization. This helps ensure the needs of [104] Stakeholders, because if the business does not comply, it may face consequences. To make sure everyone is aligned towards the needs of [104] Stakeholder, a [117] Corporate Culture with some [118] Ethical Values is built. Furthermore, the [111] Governing Body may at any time initiate an [132] Audit to verify the [130] Compliance of the [102] Business Organization.
