

In organizational operations, [300] ITSM coordinates IT services in alignment with business goals. [321] Business Continuity relies on [300] ITSM for service availability during disruptions, while [343] Project Management executes strategies for resilience. [140] Risk Management identifies and mitigates risks, governed by [200] IT governance frameworks. [229] ISMS implements security controls, and [303] SLAs define service levels with risk provisions. [146] Control (Risk) implements controls as part of risk mitigation strategies. [272] HR manages workforce alignment with governance objectives and business continuity. [250] Cybersecurity safeguards IT assets and services. They ensure effective IT service delivery, resilience, and risk mitigation.