

This concept map highlights how these concepts are interconnected and crucial for an effective organization. The [113] Governance sets the foundation for achieving the organization's Objectives while considering the needs of various [104] Stakeholder. [117] Corporate Culture establishes [118] Ethical Values and promotes [130] Compliance in order to positively impact [140] Risk Management. Decision Making is influenced by the [117] Corporate Culture and Performance Monitoring. [130] Compliance follows a set of legal Regulations and proactive [140] Risk Management is essential to mitigate Risks and help achieve Objectives. Finally, Performance Monitoring informs future adjustments in the Decision Making and is crucial for the organization's [113] Governance.