

The [113] governance sets direction to [150]Management of the the [100 ]organization, characterized by certain [117]corportate values, and defines a [120]strategy to meet its objectives attending to the [104] Stakeholder needs. [113] Governance also establishes the [140] risk management which job is to measure [146]control and ensure [130]compliance to guarantee the [100] organization operates under up-to-date [133]certification, always in direction with the [117]corporate values.