

In [321]Business Continuity, [322]BIA is a pivotal concept linked with [145]Risk Treatment and [112]GRC. Within the [300]ITSM framework the [322]BIA utilizes its principles and is guided by the [151]Management System. It aligns with [100]Organization strategies, executing within projects and systems. [322]BIA addresses risks and manages them effectively, forming a crucial component of [112]GRC initiatives. Encompassing organizational systems, [322]BIA's implementation includes [303]SLAs. Through the execution within [343]Project Management frameworks, [322]BIA addresses, guides some aspects of [321]Business Continuity, providing a foundation for risk mitigation and organizational resilience. It aligns with [400]IT Strategy to ensure strategic alignment and coherence.