In this concept map, [113] Governance is the central pillar, influenced by [104] Stakeholders. [113] Governance determines [110] Accountability, establishes [117] Corporate Culture, defines [150] Management, and monitors [130] Compliance.

[110] Accountability must be demonstrated by [150] Management which will enforce [130] Compliance and operationalize the [151] Management System, that will successively support [140] Risk Management.

[117] Corporate Culture reflects [118] Ethical Values and influences [130] Compliance which in turn affects [140] Risk Management that finally leads to [159] Maturity.

The map portrays a clear hierarchy, with [113] Governance at the top cascading down to [159] Maturity, illustrating the influence flow through various Business Management concepts.
