

This concept map illustrates the symbiotic relationships within business governance. At its heart is [113] Governance, the foundation for [112] GRC, guiding [130] Compliance and [140] Risk Management. [117] Corporate Culture strongly influences [150] Management and also interacts with [113] Governance to shape [120] Strategy. [130] Compliance, underpinned by [140] Risk Management, reflects adherence to regulations, with [111] Governing Body overseeing these mechanisms to ensure organizational accountability. [110] Responsibility anchors the ethical dimensions, linking [117] Corporate Culture and [150] Management with [113] Governance practices.