

[130] Compliance, [113] Governance, [140] Risk Management and [117] Corporate Culture are all related fundamentally to [118] Ethics. Compliance ensures adherence to laws, regulations, and internal policies, supporting ethical conduct, Corporate Culture shapes employee behaviour and attitudes, influencing ethical choices, Risk Management identifies and mitigates potential threats to ethical operations and compliance and Corporate Culture shapes employee behaviour and attitudes, influencing ethical choices. These four concepts are the [110] Responsibility of the [111] Governing Body, which should enforce the adoption of Ethical values that align with the particular [100] Organization. Both [104] Stakeholder and [109] Shareholders are affected by responsible Business Governance.
