

401.EA lays the groundwork for IT initiatives by providing a blueprint for the IT landscape and identifying opportunities for 410.Digital Transformation. It needs to consider factors like 460.Technical Debt, since its essential for ensuring the effectiveness and sustainability of IT initiatives. 400.IT Strategy focuses on recognizing emerging technologies (e.g. 480.AI) and defines how they can be leveraged to achieve business goals. It also needs to consider 441.Identity data, managed by 442.IAM, when incorporating new technologies. 450.Cloud Services can provide the infrastructure to implement digital transformation initiatives and store&secure data while requiring access management (442.IAM). As businesses rely more on tech services, staying updated is crucial → 498.Technology Research.